

40-Day Winter Tuition Program Concludes Successfully at Phobrang

Phobrang, 15th February 2025: The 40-day-long Winter Tuition Program at Phobrang concluded today with a closing ceremony attended by Konchok Stanzin, Councillor for Chushul Constituency LAHDC, Leh as the Chief Guest. The event was graced by distinguished guests from the Indian Army, village representatives, parents, facilitators, students, and the local community.

Organized by Pangong Youth for Social & Environmental Care, Phobrang, and supported by Konchok Stanzin and Royal Enfield, the winter tuition provided students with a holistic learning experience. Alongside academic subjects, students engaged in field trips to observe local wildlife, SEE Learning, activity-based education, Ice Hockey, and the traditional Kopong class. The Kopong class, led by Phuntsog Tsokar, saw remarkable performances by students, which were showcased during the closing event.

A strong emphasis was placed on Bhoti language education, ensuring the preservation and promotion of local linguistic heritage. The Councillor commended the youth-led initiative, urging them to continue such efforts in the future and assuring his continued support.

Additionally, the Councillor acknowledged Royal Enfield's significant contribution to education, particularly its support for activity-based training programs during the winter in Phobrang, as well as in Maan Pangong and Kargyam.

The Youth of Phobrang extended their heartfelt gratitude to Phuntsog Tsokar for dedicating his valuable time to the students and expressed appreciation to Konchok Stanzin for his unwavering support.

This initiative marks another step toward empowering the youth of the region through education, cultural preservation, and skill development, ensuring a brighter future for the students of Ladakh.
