

Dharti Aaba Janjatiya Gram Utkarsh Abhiyan Concludes with Successful Outreach in Urgo Panchayat at Durbuk Sub Division

Durbuk, June 30: The Dharti Aaba Janjatiya Gram Utkarsh Abhiyan, a comprehensive outreach program aimed at providing essential services and awareness to tribal communities, successfully concluded its final camp at Urgo Panchayat, Mann B in Durbuk Sub Division.

The initiative saw a significant turnout, with numerous villagers benefiting from the services offered. The concluding camp saw government officials providing crucial assistance across various domains. Key services rendered included the issuance and updating of 14 Aadhaar cards, processing of 4 Kisan Credit Card (KCC) applications, and facilitating 4 pension enrollments.

Financial inclusion was also a focus, with registrations for 1 Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana (PMJJY) and 4 Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana (PMSBY) being completed. A total of 22 certificates were issued, addressing various needs of the community. A significant achievement was the updating or generation of 118 Job Cards, which are vital for employment under government schemes. Additionally, support was provided for 3 beneficiaries under Pradhan Mantri Matru Vandana Yojana (PMMVY), benefiting expectant and new mothers. Health and well-being were also prioritized, with 32 individuals receiving health check-ups.

The successful culmination of the Dharti Aaba Janjatiya Gram Utkarsh Abhiyan highlights the positive impact of such outreach initiatives in bringing government services and awareness directly to the doorstep of rural and tribal communities.
