

Royal Family of Bhutan pays courtesy visit to LG Kavinder, First Lady

Leh, September 9: Her Majesty Queen Mother Ashi Tshering Pem Wangchuck and Her Royal Highness Princess Ashi Kesang Choden Wangchuck from Bhutan paid a courtesy visit to the Hon'ble Lieutenant Governor of Ladakh, Shri Kavinder Gupta and First Lady Smt Bindu Gupta, at the Raj Niwas.

At the onset, Her Majesty Queen Mother Ashi Tshering Pem Wangchuck thanked the Lt Governor and UT Administration for their hospitality during their stay in Ladakh. She informed the Lt Governor about the maiden official visit of the Royal Family of Bhutan to Ladakh and the places visited by them during their stay. She praised Ladakh's beauty, its stunning landscapes, and the warmth and affection of the people.

The Lt Governor said that Ladakh deeply values its centuries-old cultural, spiritual, and economic ties with Bhutan. He extended gratitude to Her Majesty and Her Royal Highness for their visit and said that such exchanges will further strengthen people-to-people connect between Ladakh and Bhutan. Shri Gupta also highlighted the shared Buddhist heritage that binds the two regions together and emphasised Ladakh's commitment to preserving and promoting this ancient legacy.

The Lt Governor also highlighted various initiatives taken by the Central Government under the leadership of Hon'ble Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the UT Administration for the development of Ladakh.

The First Lady, Smt Bindu Gupta, also interacted warmly with the Queen Mother and the Princess, appreciating Bhutan's efforts in preserving its rich cultural traditions while embracing modernity.

The meeting concluded on a cordial note with both sides expressing hope for enhanced cultural and spiritual exchanges in the future.
