

Two-day Awareness and Benefit Saturation Camps Under Dharti Aaba Abhiyan Conclude in Khaltsi

Khaltsi, June 18, 2025: The two-day Awareness and Benefit Saturation Camp, held under the banner of Dharti Aaba Janjatiya Gram Utkarsh Abhiyan (DAJGUA) and led by In-charge SDM Asgar Ali, concluded today in Khaltsi. This initiative marks a significant step towards empowering rural communities and ensuring all eligible households receive the benefits of various government welfare schemes.

The camp provided a platform for residents to access essential services at a single point. During the camp, a total of 28 ST, 34 RC, and 3 Income certificates were issued, along with 7 Kisan Credit Cards and various other benefits, all on the spot. Approximately 1350 ration cards were also updated. Additionally, beneficiaries were enrolled in Social Security Pensions, Employment and Livelihood programs including MGNREGA, PM Vishwakarma, and Mudra loans. Welfare benefits for women and children under PMMVY and ICDS, as well as financial inclusion schemes like Jan Dhan and PM-Kisan, were also facilitated.

The camp not only facilitated the direct delivery of services but also served as an avenue for raising awareness about the various government schemes available to the people of the Khaltsi sub-division.

Residents expressed their gratitude for the initiative, highlighting the positive impact it has had on their access to essential services and information.
