

Major General Kohli interact with Students of Govt High school Thasgam ahead of Vijay Diwas

Drass, July 24, 2025 – In a heartwarming gesture ahead of the solemn Kargil Vijay Diwas 2025, Major General Ashim Kohli (Retd), a decorated veteran and the Founder of SEWAJ Foundation, interacted with students of PM Shri Government High School, Thasgam, Drass, and extended his support to the young minds of the region.

As part of the foundation's educational outreach initiative, school bags were distributed among the children of Thasgam during a special visit to the Kargil War Memorial, a site that stands as a symbol of India's valor and sacrifice. The event aimed to instill a sense of patriotism, pride, and encouragement among the students, while also honoring the memory of the martyrs of the 1999 Kargil War.

Major General Kohli, in his interaction, inspired the students with stories of courage and service, urging them to pursue education with dedication and dream big for their nation. The gesture from SEWAJ Foundation was met with great appreciation by school authorities, local villagers, and defense officials present at the site.

The initiative marked a meaningful tribute to the martyrs and a step toward empowering the next generation in the border regions of Ladakh.
