

Ministry of Culture opens exhibition “The Light and The Lotus – Relics of the Awakened One” showcasing sacred Piprahwa Relics of Lord Buddha

Leh, January 14: The Ministry of Culture, Government of India, has opened an exhibition titled “The Light and The Lotus – Relics of the Awakened One” for the general public at the Rai Pithora Cultural Complex, Lado Sarai, New Delhi, located near the main gate of the Qutub Golf Course.

It is informed that the exhibition is open daily from 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM and the Ministry of Culture has ensured that all necessary facilities and visitor amenities are in place to provide a safe, comfortable, and enriching experience for the public.

The exhibition was formally inaugurated by the Hon’ble Prime Minister of India on 3rd January 2026, marking an important moment in the country’s ongoing efforts to preserve, promote, and present India’s rich civilizational and spiritual heritage to a wider audience.

The exhibition is expected to attract scholars, students, practitioners, tourists, and members of the general public. The exhibition provides visitors an opportunity to witness the sacred Piprahwa relics of Lord Buddha, which hold immense historical, archaeological, and spiritual significance.

For coordination or additional information related to the exhibition, concerned individuals and organizations may contact: Shri Shah Faesal, contact number: 9596680511.

