

IGNOU LSC Leh Coordinator Conferred with Best Coordinator Award

Leh, April 10, 2026: The IGNOU Learner Support Centre (LSC) 1203, Eliezer Joldan Memorial College, Leh, proudly announces that Dr. Yangchan Dolma, Coordinator of the Centre, has been conferred with the Best Coordinator Award by Indira Gandhi National Open University, Regional Centre Srinagar.

The prestigious recognition has been awarded in appreciation of her exemplary leadership, dedication, and outstanding contributions towards strengthening learner support services and promoting quality education during the year 2025.

The award was presented on the occasion of the 39th Convocation of IGNOU held at Regional Centre Srinagar on April 7, 2026. Dr. Yangchan Dolma's commitment and tireless efforts have significantly enhanced the functioning of LSC 1203, particularly in ensuring accessibility, inclusivity, and academic excellence in the remote region of Ladakh.

Her achievement marks a proud moment for the entire IGNOU fraternity in Ladakh and serves as an inspiration for educators and coordinators across the region.

The staff and learners of IGNOU LSC 1203, Leh, have extended their heartfelt congratulations to Dr. Yangchan Dolma on this remarkable achievement and wished her continued success in all her future endeavors.
