

Mimang-si-rJabstogs “Administrative at Your Doorstep” Camp Conducted at Tyakshi, Nubra.

Under the ongoing Mimang-si-rJabstogs initiative, an extensive public outreach camp was conducted today at Tyakshi and Thang Nubra, under the chairmanship of Niab Tehsildar Turtuk, Sh. Abdul Rehman.

The event was organized with the purpose of extending various government schemes and essential services directly to the local residents. Heads of Departmentthe Diskit Sub-Division took part in the programme and shared detailed information regarding their respective sectors. They interacted with villagers, clarified scheme-related benefits, and addressed public grievances while offering guidance on welfare and development programmes currently in progress.

There was an overwhelming response from the villagers, who actively availed themselves of the services offered during the camp. A total of 15 ABHA cards and 4 PMJAY Cards were issued, along with 3 new entries and 2 eKYC updates. Furthermore, 4 Ladakh Residence Certificates, 10 Income Certificates, and 2 Centre ST certificates were provided on the spot, in addition to other important citizen services and welfare-related documentation.
