

The “Mimang Si Jabstok” campaign was successfully conducted across multiple villages in the Nyoma Subdivision, including Bhok, Dhado, Punguk, Khuldo, Naga, and Anlay.

Nyoma, 12th of November 2025:- The “Mimang Si Jabstok” campaign was successfully conducted across multiple villages in the Nyoma Subdivision, including Bhok, Dhado, Punguk, Khuldo, Naga, and Anlay. The campaign was aimed at promoting awareness and implementation of key government schemes at the grassroots level, ensuring that the benefits of these initiatives reach every household. During the campaign, officials and field functionaries engaged with local residents to disseminate information about welfare programs, highlight their objectives, and encourage active public participation.

Residents expressed their appreciation for the Government’s efforts to bring welfare schemes closer to remote communities. The program witnessed enthusiastic participation from villagers and local representatives, reflecting their keen interest in developmental and welfare activities.

Speaking on the Sub Divisional Magistrate kacho Asgar Ali emphasized the importance of public cooperation in realizing the objectives of Government schemes and commended the dedication of the field teams for their outreach efforts.

The “Mimang Si Jabstok” initiative will continue across other villages in the subdivision Nyoma in the coming days, reaffirming the administration’s commitment to transparent, efficient, and people-oriented governance.

