

Today, Ladakh Day was celebrated at DDAC with great joy, harmony, and a deep sense of cultural pride. The occasion became even more special with the gracious presence of LBA Youth Wing President Jigmat Rabtan, along with women's wings representing different religions, respected all transport unions present.

The atmosphere was filled with unity, smiles, and positive energy, as everyone came together to celebrate the rich traditions of Ladakh. DDAC students and staff presented a mesmerizing cultural program, and the students also shared their DDAC journey, expressing their experiences, struggles, and hope for a better future.

A warm and heartfelt welcome was extended to all the esteemed guests with traditional khadak, on behalf of DDAC Incharge Rigzin Yangdol.

The program was further enriched by inspiring speeches from all the guests. The presence of Gyan Chosgyal Heart Foundation added great value to the occasion, and they were warmly honored for their support. Under the guidance of DDAC Incharge Rigzin Yangdol, the event was beautifully organized and reflected dedication, care, and unity. This gesture reflected our deep respect, cultural values, and gratitude towards everyone who joined and made the Ladakh Day celebration at DDAC truly special and memorable.

