

Review Meeting Held for Upcoming 79th Independence Day Celebration at SDM Office, Nyoma

Nyoma, August 5, 2025: A review meeting was held today in the office chamber of the Sub-Divisional Magistrate (SDM), Nyoma, to finalize preparations for the upcoming Independence Day celebrations. The meeting was chaired by the SDM Nyoma, Kacho Asgar Ali who emphasized the importance of ensuring smooth, dignified, and patriotic observance of the national event.

Heads of various departments attended the meeting and provided updates on their respective responsibilities related to the celebration. Discussions included venue preparation, cultural programs, invitation management, and public participation.

The SDM directed all departments to work in coordination and adhere to timelines to ensure a successful celebrations.

