

77th Republic Day Celebrations at Resident Commissioner Office, Ladakh Bhawan, New Delhi

The officers and officials of the Resident Commissioner Office, Union Territory of Ladakh, celebrated the 77th Republic Day at Ladakh Bhawan, New Delhi, with patriotic fervour. Ms. Sonam Chhosdon, Deputy Resident Commissioner, led the celebrations and hoisted the National Flag.

On the occasion, the Deputy Resident Commissioner extended warm greetings to all officers and staff and highlighted the significance of the Constitution in strengthening democratic values, unity, and integrity of the nation. She also reiterated the commitment of the administration towards inclusive development and good governance in the Union Territory of Ladakh.

The ceremony was attended by Dy. SP Mr. Tsewang Dorjay, Dr. Tsering Zangmo, Senior Medical Officer, Mr. Tsewang Morup, AEE, the Protocol Officer, and other officers and staff of the office. The programme concluded with the singing of the National Anthem, reflecting collective pride and dedication towards the nation.

