

‘Mimang-si-Shabstogs’ Campaign to Strengthen Public Outreach and Welfare Delivery Begins in Kharu Sub-Division

Hemis, November 8, 2025: The ‘Mimang-si-Shabstogs’ campaign, aimed at strengthening public outreach and ensuring the effective implementation of welfare schemes across Kharu Sub-Division, commenced today at Hemis village. The initiative seeks to bring government services and welfare schemes closer to the people, ensuring on-spot redressal of grievances and timely delivery of benefits. Around 20 departments, along with the State Bank of India (SBI), J&K Bank, and Punjab National Bank (PNB), participated in the campaign.

Issues related to ongoing projects under the Public Works Department (PWD), Rural Development, Irrigation & Flood Control, and Public Health Engineering (PHE) were resolved on the spot. Resident certificates, domicile certificates, mutation documents, and Scheduled Tribe (ST) certificates were distributed. Additionally, services such as Golden Card completion, Aadhaar enrolment, and other essential public welfare activities were carried out during the event. The campaign witnessed enthusiastic and proactive participation from the public, reflecting the success of the outreach initiative in ensuring citizen-centric governance and effective service delivery.
