

Administrative Services Reach Nimoo Village under Ongoing “Mimang-Si-Sjabstogs” Drive

Leh, November 14, 2025 : Under the ongoing “Mimang-Si-Sjabstogs” (Administration at Your Doorstep) initiative, the District Administration, Leh, organised a public outreach camp at Nimoo village today. The event marked the fifth day of the series of outreach camps being conducted across the district since November 10.

The camp was attended by Nodal Officer Padma Angmo (JKAS), Assistant Director Tourism, Leh, along with officers and officials from various departments and local villagers.

Community Member welcomed the Nodal Officer and other officials. A memorandum highlighting local issues and demands was submitted to the Nodal Officer, along with words of appreciation for the administration for organising the outreach camp.

Addressing the gathering, Nodal Officer Padma Angmo stated that the Mimang-Si-Sjabstogs programme aims to bridge the gap between the administration and the public by delivering government services directly at the grassroots level. She encouraged villagers to interact freely with the departmental officials present, raise their concerns, and submit grievances for timely redressal through proper channels.

As the Assistant Director of Tourism, she also briefed the public about various tourism schemes and their benefits. She highlighted that Nimoo block is a major tourist attraction, especially known for rafting, and encouraged villagers to motivate local youth to take advantage of tourism-related opportunities.

She also explained the SIR (Special Intensive Revision) process, informing the public that it is carried out to ensure accuracy in the electoral rolls. She highlighted that double or duplicate names in the voter list can affect the electoral process and must be corrected immediately. She requested the Nambardar to spread awareness among villagers and ensure that those with duplicate entries take prompt action to get them removed.

Officials from around 20 departments participated in the camp, providing on-the-spot services, sharing information about government schemes, and disseminating details of ongoing and upcoming developmental projects.

During the camp, e-KYC was completed, Aadhaar card generation was done on the spot, ABHA cards and Golden Cards were issued, new families were added to ration cards, deletions were processed, and RCs were issued.

Villagers raised several local issues, including road improvement, the need for a primary health centre, a community hall, concerns related to the Jal Jeevan Mission, and other public welfare demands.

In her concluding remarks, the Nodal Officer assured that all issues and grievances raised by the villagers would be forwarded to higher authorities for prompt action. She reaffirmed the administration’s commitment to ensuring efficient delivery of public services at the grassroots level. She thanked all participating departments and villagers and expressed hope that the camp would prove beneficial to the community.

The initiative, launched by the District Administration, Leh, aims to cover every village within 15 days, ensuring doorstep delivery of government services, spreading awareness about welfare schemes, and addressing public grievances efficiently.

