

Good Governance Week Observed under the “Prashasan Gaon Ke Ore 2025” Campaign at Sumoor, Nubra

Nubra, December 23, 2025: As part of the observance of Good Governance Week, an outreach camp under the Prashasan Gaon Ke Ore 2025 campaign was organised today at Sumoor, Nubra, with the aim of strengthening public outreach and ensuring effective implementation of welfare initiatives.

Officials from various government departments participated in the camp and interacted directly with local residents. The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from the public, reflecting strong community engagement.

During the camp, officials provided on the spot services, disseminated information about various government schemes and assisted residents in availing benefits offered by the Administration. Several departments facilitated immediate services and addressed public grievances and queries effectively.

The outreach camp reinforced the Administration’s commitment to transparent governance and citizen centric service delivery.

