

13 Schools and EJM College Leh Take Pledge Under Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan (NMBA)

LEH, OCTOBER 2025: In a significant step towards building a drug-free society, EJM College Leh, along with 13 schools, enthusiastically took the “Nasha Mukht Bharat” pledge. The initiative is part of a nationwide campaign aimed at preventing substance abuse and promoting healthier lifestyles among youth.

The event witnessed active participation from students and faculty members, who committed themselves to leading a drug-free life and expressed solidarity with the national mission. The pledge ceremony was successfully conducted with the support and coordination of the DDAC Staff, Leh.

In addition to the pledge ceremony, a Slogan Writing Competition was organized at Government Girls Senior Secondary School, Leh, under the Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan, further engaging students through creative and awareness-building activities.
