

Dharti Aaba Abhiyan – Awareness & Benefit Saturation Camp held successfully at Chumathang under Nyoma Sub -division today.

Nyoma, June 16, 2025:-

Under the banner of the Dharti Aaba Janjatiya Gram Utkarsh Abhiyan (DAJGUA), a comprehensive Awareness & Benefit Saturation Camp held at Chumathang village under Nyoma subdivision today.

As part of the ongoing outreach efforts under the Dharti Aabha Abhiyan, a comprehensive multi-departmental public service camp was successfully organized today at Chumathang village, under the Nyoma Sub-Division. The initiative witnessed active participation from both government departments and the local community.

Officials from each department were present on the spot to offer their respective services, resolve grievances, and create awareness about ongoing and upcoming government welfare schemes.

Residents availed themselves of services such as on-the-spot issuance of certificates, health check-ups, awareness sessions on agricultural practices, pension scheme enrollment, livestock care consultation, and distribution of informative literature related to public welfare programs.

Key services provided during the camp included health check-ups, issuance of certificates, enrollment under pension and welfare schemes, veterinary support, awareness on sustainable agricultural practices, and distribution of scheme-related literature.

Officers from all participating departments were present to interact with the public, address grievances, and ensure delivery of services in a transparent and efficient manner.

The residents appreciated the government's initiative and highlighted how such camps make essential services more accessible, especially in far-flung areas like Chumathang.

